I'm more worried. I looked at our email thread and 30k + 6k was what you had written too. I just landed and got your call and you understood it as 60k + 6k and logic doesn't make sense.

We definitely need to sort it ASAP so we'll call you as soon as we head back

9:37 PM

It said after that we are even on presells

We just handed you a billion dollar company with [REDACTED] alone and the global ceo is going to personally look after you and now this? I Could have done three deals during this timeframe. [REDACTED] is livid. He put out to so many of his high level contacts.
